

Manager Monitoring (Technical)

Job Summary	The primary job responsibility will be to monitor technical activities for projects funded by Ignite. In addition, other monitoring-related activities will also be a part of the job.
Job Responsibilities	• Primary job responsibility will be to monitor technical activities for projects funded by Ignite. In addition, other monitoring-related activities will also be a part of the job. • To design and implement technical monitoring and evaluation tools and strategies in line with the ongoing proposal approval criteria. • To follow up on funded proposals ensuring timely submission of progress reports and adherence to project timetables. • To ensure effective and progressive monitoring of all R&D Funded projects, with a view to strengthening the performance of these projects. • To generate technical monitoring reports on the progress of funded projects. • To communicate with Principal Investigators on all technical matters of the funded projects. • To provide all essential technical information about funded projects to other departments of the organization
Qualification & Experience:	• Should have a Master's degree in Telecom/Electronics/Electrical/ Computer Systems Engineering or Computer Sciences / Information Technology or equivalent. However, a person with higher or multiple qualifications will be given preference. • Should have at least 7 to 10 years post qualification progressive or multiple relevant work experience or equivalent in a dynamic result-driven organization.
Reports To:	General Manager Monitoring
Remuneration/ Benefits:	Contract basis, market competitive salary, car monetization, medical and other facilities.